MISS MADELINE ROBINETTE

As Seniors, one of our most meaningful privileges is the recognition of those who have been most influential to us throughout our years at Erwin High School.

Our class has chosen for this honor:

One, who during the span of many years as a teacher and great helper here at E. H. S., has shown her many wonderful characteristics in several different ways. Her patience, kindness, firmness, and sweet smile have caused our love, respect, and admiration for her to grow over the years. She is always willing to offer her assistance to help in every way she can, whether educationally or spiritually.

MRS. EMILY THOMAS

One, who devotes her time and services to the betterment of others and the improvement of the school, she has helped encourage us to accept the challenge of life. By fulfilling the responsibility of giving us good sound advice, she has helped make us what we are.

In order to show only a small token of our love and express our most sincere appreciation for the help and understanding you've given us, We, the Senior Class of 1967, wish to dedicate this edition of the HOUR-GLASS to Miss Madeline Robinette and Mrs. Emily Thomas.

Thank you for everything.

Dr. Norwood E. Jones
Principal of the Erwin School
1956-1966

For their contributions to Erwin

As we think back over Dr. Jones' ten years of service to the Erwin School, we first remember looking to him in awesome wonder. But as we grew older we also grew closer to our determined, capable leader. Each day our respect, admiration, and affection grew for him. In this spirit, we dedicate this page of the 1967 HOURGLASS to Dr. Norwood E. Jones for his direction, determination, and sincere devotion to the Erwin School.

ciation to:

Mr. Glenn T. Proffit
Superintendent of Harnett County Schools
1951-1966

School and Harnett County

Sincere gratitude is due Mr. Glenn T. Proffit for his service to the Harnett County Schools as a capable, enthusiastic leader. During his fifteen years as Superintendent, the school system has been greatly influenced by his interest, leadership ability, and his high standards of achievement. We hope that the dedication of this page of the 1967 HOURGLASS will help Mr. Proffit to realize how much his hard work has been appreciated.

ALMA MATER

The halls of old Erwin,
We hold you so dear,
Your stately walls beckon
For us to come near.

You hold for us memories
We hope to recall,
We know we'll remember,
Remember them all.

The halls of old Erwin,
They hold many trophies.
We've fought for and won them,
With glory and strife.

The hallowed halls are
The symbols of glory
For us who do hail you,
Do hail you all through life!

Principal

MR. ROBERT W. CANNADY

To Erwin High School Seniors, 1966-1967:

In my short tenure at Erwin High, I have been impressed by many things - one of the most notable of these has been this year's senior class. Your seriousness of purpose, your warmth, friendliness, and cooperation are high among the reasons for my being so happy here. I am grateful to this class for these things and I extend to you best wishes for continued success.

We have tried to provide experiences here that would cause you to accept the responsibilities and privileges of democratic living. We trust you have become proud and self-reliant and that you will continue to work cooperatively with others in the community who are attempting to make Erwin and our nation a better place. We want you to take pride in personal accomplishments, but more than this, we hope you will always keep things in their proper perspective - to understand the relative value of spiritual and material things.

What you do after graduation will determine whether your school and home have been successful. We know you do not yet know what you will become, but I challenge you to plan always to be of service. You not only have a responsibility to yourselves and your families, but also to society. What you do and how you conduct yourselves will determine whether you are fulfilling this responsibility. I am confident that the members of this class will meet their responsibilities.

Best wishes for health and happiness and many years of service.

PARENT'S PAGE

It is seldom that we voice aloud the gratitude and deep affection we feel for our parents. The love and faith they have invested in our lives have carried us through these past twelve years. Now as we begin to accept our new roles as mature graduates, we realize that our parents are responsible for what we have become. Our reactions to them and our deepest feelings about them shape our personality, and in this way our parents have become an inseparable part of us. Through the years they have shared our laughter, tears, hopes and disappointments. And now we share a portion of our Senior year with them as we dedicate this page of the 1967 HOURGLASS to our parents with our deepest love and appreciation.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1963, a group of frightened, yet excited freshmen entered Erwin High School. Being anxious to take our place among the high society, we elected the following class officers: President, Bill Bennett; Vice President, Dwight West; Secretary, Lynn Bethune; Treasurer, Bruce Gomedella; and Sergeant-at-arms, Billy Harrington. Our class was well represented on the athletic teams. Many other students joined the various clubs. We were proud to have Lynn Bethune crowned Homecoming Queen during our Freshman year. We were also proud to have Tag Wade, George Coleman, Michael Strickland, Michael Walters, Bruce Gomedella, Bing Sizemore, Richard Crawford, Dwight West, and Si Harrington tapped into the Key Club.

As Sophomores we were more confident, ready, and willing to make this year a success. We began by electing the following officers: President, Tag Wade; Vice-President, Billy Harrington; Secretary, Cindy Ralph; Treasurer, Kathy Ray; and Sergeant-at-arms, Dwight West. Again this year our class was well represented on the athletic teams. Several of our members were tapped into the Beta Club: Brenda Barefoot, Lynn Bethune, Cathy Byrd, Si Harrington, Janet House, Elaine McLamb, Edith Lockamy, Michael Strickland, Tag Wade and Hope Thornton. The high light of the year came when Kathy Ray was crowned Key Club Queen.

Finally we were Juniors. Wanting to long remember this year, we elected the following class officers: President, Danny Grady; Vice-President, Bill Bennett; Secretary, Janet House; Treasurer, Harry Wade; and Sergeant-at-arms, Dallas Blackmon. We were really looking forward to publishing the HI-LITE and planning the Prom. We chose Tag Wade, Elaine McLamb, and Cathy Byrd editors of the HI-LITE. We were very proud to have Mrs. Sarah Hudson, Mr. Jimmy Johnson, and Miss Linda Lassiter as sponsors. Several members of our class served as officers of the various clubs. We were well represented at Homecoming with the following girls: Cathy Byrd, Jeanette Horne, Sondra Beasley, and Hope Thornton. As the year came to a close, we chose as co-editors of the HOURGLASS Joyce Turnage and Cathy Byrd.

Finally, we are Seniors. Long have we awaited this title. We all felt that this was our most important year and we wanted it to be a success. We began by electing the following as our class officers: President, Dallas Blackmon; Vice-President, Richard Crawford; Secretary, Janet House; Treasurer, Lynn Bethune; and Sergeant-at-arms, Danny Jakeman. Cathy Byrd was elected Chief Cheerleader with Brenda Barefoot as Co-Chief. How exciting our last Homecoming game was! We were proud to have Jaona Jackson crowned Homecoming Queen. Other Senior girls on the Homecoming Court were Brenda Barefoot, Elaine McLamb, Rae Odom, and Lynn Bethune. Si Harrington was chosen Morehead Nominee from Erwin High School. Also, Cathy Byrd was chosen to represent E. H. S. as a nominee for the award given by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Boy! were we happy the morning our class rings arrived. We considered them our most prized possessions. Then came the magazine sale; followed by the Senior Class Halloween party. Everyone really had a wonderful time. These memories and many, many more; we, the Class of 1967 leave to each of you.

PROPHECY

Time: June 1, 1977

Place: The Laboratory of Erwin Institute of Technology

As I enter the laboratory with its strange machines and many workers busily running back and forth, I notice some familiar faces. The man working at the end of the counter is Bing Sizemore, prominent chemist and inventor. His three assistants, Dale Holt, Ruth Horne, and Janet House seem to be extra busy today. Those girls operating the IBM computers are Joyce Turnage, Edith Lockamy, and Elaine McLamb. The Institute's two electronic experts are Mike Walters and Randy House.

The accountants who work here, Larry Hobson and Richard Crawford, told my lawyer, Danny Jakeman, that a time machine had been invented. The architects who designed this building, Harry Wade, Glenn Pope, and Linwood Jernigan, head communications man here, could all confirm this story. They had seen the machine.

As I wander around, I see a school tour being conducted. I wonder who the teachers leading the group are? The three men in the lead are Tag Wade, Dwight West, and Dallas Blackmon. Their female counterparts are Vicky Carlisle, Cathy Byrd, and Brenda Barefoot. They make a nice addition to any faculty. I understand they are all very popular at E.H.S. Erwin's coaches, Bruce Gomedella, Billy Harrington, and Wayne Royal are enjoying the tour as much as the students. By the way, I hear they have undefeated teams this year. Keep up the good work fellows.

TWO HOURS LATER

Well I finally talked Professor Sizemore into a demonstration of his time machine. I doubt if it will work though.

As we get in, he pushes a button--a whirring sound comes from every direction, lights! flash! puff! Everything is dark. The Professor explains that we are going forward in time. Both of us hope to see what our classmates from old E. H. S. will be doing in the years to come.

It's getting light again . . . We seem to be viewing a forest ranger's station. Those rangers over there look familiar--why, it's Joey Denning, Mike Strickland, Dan Grady, and a veterinarian friend of theirs, George Coleman. They are apparently enjoying themselves as much as they said they would.

Near the park is the best garage in town. Its owners, Larry Faircloth, Jerry Faircloth, and Ricky West are all good mechanics.

As we charge into the future, we see two hospital X-Ray technicians at work on Sondra Beasley, a famous beautician. The two technicians, Lynn Bethune and Jacona Jackson, make good X-Ray specialists; oh, to have a broken arm. Well, back to business. Those nurses at the main desk look like Ann Hall, Margaret Faircloth, and Valarie Barbour. They always did like to help people.

Our next stop is a Military Base at which a young pilot, Barry Horne, and his flight engineer, Marine sergeant Billy Frazier approach a waiting airplane. Among those watching the preparations for take-off are two sharp looking soldiers, Randy Byrd and Donald Lucas. I hope the service is good to them.

The next place our time machine deposits us is at a large chain grocery store. The sign outside reads, "International Foods, Inc., Willie Avery, Manager." As we enter the spacious store, we can pick out many familiar faces. Some of the bargain hunting shoppers are Linda Wade, Brenda Whittington, Jackie Byrd, Jo Ann Morrison, and Jannie Mae Norris, all of whom are married and have wonderful families. Those ladies at the check-out counter are Elizabeth Stone, Sherry Shermer, and Patsy Ryals. The girls behind the check-out counter are Linda Eason, Barbara Ennis and Bonnie Autry. They surely are efficient workers.

Another stop is made at the hotel operated by Ronald Tart. The Business Executives of America are having their annual convention here this week. Frank Dennis, Donald Jones, and Ray Parker are three of the well to do businessmen attending. The secretaries who accompanied their bosses are Janice Brown, Ann Lucas, Linda McDonald, and Ann McLean. Geneva McNeill is busy checking in the delegates. Not all the representatives are men though. Kathy Ray and Rae Odom, prominent advertising agents, are here also. Linda Pope and Cindy Ralph are happily married and still find time to be prosperous business women.

As we make our way back to the future, suddenly there is a flash of light, a loud pop! . . . and we are home. Two scientists who work at the institute, Rondey Giles and Donald Turner, approach the machine with optimism. "Well, did it work?" they ask.

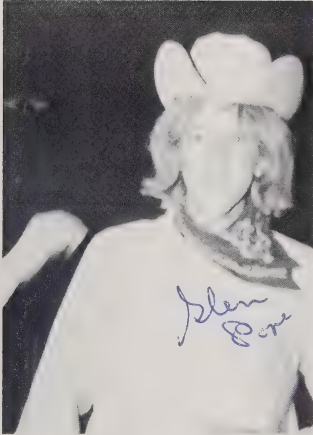

"It surely did," I reply. "We saw just about everybody and they all were happy."

We say our goodbyes and I leave for home. On my way there, I decide to stop for a bite of lunch at the Candlelight Room, owned by Mickey Phillips. His reputation for fine food is well known in this area. From where I am seated, I notice Hope Thornton and Wanda Stephens having lunch together. They too, have done well in life and are very happily married.

Now, as I sit gazing out the window, memories of Erwin High and my former classmates drift into my thoughts. A feeling of satisfaction comes over me as I realize that my wishes for happiness and success were found by all of my classmates.

Clair,

(Reserved for Ruth)

Clair,

I Can't begin to tell you what your friendship has meant to me. If it hadn't been for you to discuss this year's latest problems --- well, what would have happened. I have to think of it. But there is the bright side too. We have really had fun this year, haven't we? Besides "pushing" books in the library, we have learned to write a letter. (I still don't think I could though!) We've had to do a lot of sneaking around but maybe you won't have to much longer. Things will work out sooner or later. They've got to get better. They certainly Can't get any worse. I guess I will have to go see you in Charlotte after all. When you get to Charlotte, clue me in on that "fun" you're supposed to have when you get there. Maybe I can get in on the action too.

Seriously though I Can't think of a single person I like any better than you. You're my "bestest" friend. Best of luck in the future to you and Linwood.

Love always
Ruth

Elaine

Thanks for the so many wonderful things you have done for Calvin + myself. If it weren't for you I just don't know how we would have made it. Be good + may God richly bless you throughout life.

A Friend Always,

Elaine,
We've had our ups + downs, but we've also had some good times. Don't forget Sunday English + backhopping. Best of luck to you + Linwood.

Best of Luck

Elaine,

I consider you a good friend, and I hope that just because we won't be seeing as much of each other now you won't forget me. Remember how I eavesdropped on Linwood & Peg and told you everything they said about you and Beagle? I will always remember the fun we've had in sociology. May I wish a truly wonderful person all the success and happiness you certainly deserve. Don't forget me.

Love,
Cathy Byrd

Elaine,

I have enjoyed knowing you these past twelve years. If it were not for your sweet personality, our successes would not have been so great. We have had many classes together in the past but the best of all was our one class this year in Sociology. After graduation, I hope our friendship continues. May the best life has to offer come to a great girl.

Always,
Jaqui

Elaine,
